With this double sided fireplace, you can set your vision free . Conceived with flexibility in mind , the DF1200 is ideal for large areas, and allows the contemporary consumer to define space like never before . The ultimate focal point, you can now create two very different areas within one space, or station the fireplace in a wall between two rooms. The DF1200 can be encompassed in any surround design you desire, its clean and uninterrupted line enhanced by the use of a clever removable handle, a hot air ducted system allows you to infuse warmth into every corner of every room, and a beautifully conceived ash extractor makes cleaning your fireplace a matter of consummate ease. With the DF1200, you need no longer think within parameters, you need only possibilities
